

Final Prayer

"Goodbye Cruel World"

Visit "Goodbye Cruel World" on MotoLyrics.com

Coming from an empty place
Where life is drained of all it's meaning
I searched for something
For something more
When everyone is made the same
All my dreams turn into nightmares

What I love - means nothing to you
What I care for - you abuse

What I count on - is pushed away
What I hold on to - is your decay

I live this dream that I would fight for
I live this dream that I would die for
I live this dream that I would fight for
I live this dream that I would die for
