She burns

Today's on fire

The sky is bleeding above me, and I am blistered

I walk these lines of blasphemy, every day

And still:

Like a bad star, I'm falling faster down to her

She's the only one who knows, what it is to burn

I feel diseased

Is there no sympathy from the sun?

The sky's still fire

But I am safe in here, from the world outside

So tell me

What's the price to pay for glory?

Like a bad star, I'm falling faster down to her

She's the only one who knows, what it is to burn

Today is fire, and she burns

Today is fire, and she burns

She burns

She burns

She burns

She burns

She burns

She burns

Like a bad star, I'm falling faster down to her

She's the only one who knows, what it is to burn
