I woke up today, rolled out of my bed
The sound of your voice, is still ringing in my head
Cause I can't seem, to put the past behind
In my dreams you'll still be mine

As you see the face, As you feel the pain
As I watch you go, into the game again
As you see the face, As you feel the pain
I know you will not last, I know you will not stay
I know you'll run away

The hardest part, is letting you go
With things you still say, when you call me on the phone
I don't know why, you have to play these games
Make up your mind it's killing me

As you see the face, As you feel the pain
As I watch you go, into the game again
As you see the face, As you feel the pain
I know you will not last, I know you will not stay
I know you'll run away

It's over, you left me, I guess that dreams are never made
I gave you, my heart and, you went and threw it all away
My soul and, self-respect, have all been tossed now down the drain
The names and, the games have, cause me to never be the same
Im trying, so hard now, to be the way you want me to Even though, out you go, to do whatever you want to do
I want this, so badly, so much you'll never even know
This is my, last goodbye....

As you see the face, As you feel the
As I watch you go, into the game again
As you see the face, As you feel the pain
I know you will not last, I know you will not stay
I know you'll run away
