How long, how long can we wait for it, you know that we pray for it, only to feel inside, love will find you

How much, how much can you give to time, when all that you see is time, hoping to feel inside
love will find you

Wasted tears we've echoed and fall, lonely I need you I won't let you go, long for the day that your love will arrive, know that I need you always be mine.
I'm here I wait for you patiently. you too are showing me, hoping to feel inside, love will find you.
I know, I know that I wait for it, I'm willing to pay for it, only to feel inside, love will find you.

Wasted tears we've echoed and fall lonely I need you
arrive, know that I need you always be mine

How much, how much can you give to time, when all
that you see is time, hoping to feel inside
love will find you
