he'll take you out on another date and he'll let you fuck him the special way and you'll try but heaven knows a girl like me love to hate me if you must I'll watch your praying bite the dust I'm alive while you die to be the next best thing to a girl like me

wait for everyone to notice that you're not everything you promise now you're sleeping at the backdoor you'll never be a girl like me it thrills me, kill me your evil eyes can't touch me trust me, I never lie

you'll never be a girl like me

I'll watch you crawl
when you fall down
you'll never have my way I'll watch you crawl
when you fall down
you'll never have my way
I'll watch you crawl
when you fall down
