Wait if everything's going great
Can you remember a day to tell?
If someone should wish you well
Then there's a narrow chance

All I want from you my dear friend
I've already got

I could show you, I could show you how
And you say you've got that feeling again
It won't be long enough but it may never end
I know you say you've got that feeling again
It won't be long enough but it may never end

Wait I thought I had something to say
I will remember someday
Fate found you buckling under the weight
And you thought you would last

And all I got from you my dear friend
I don't even want

I could show you how
And you say you've got that feeling again
It won't be long enough but it may never end
I know you say you've got that feeling again
It won't be long enough but it may never end
I know I know it may never end

Follow your answers, but you look so bitter
Who are you? Are you famous? Important?
Don't you stop that glitter, no, no, oh, no, no
All I wanted from you is all forgotten for you

And you say you've got that feeling again
It won't be long enough but it may never end
I know you say you've got that feeling again
It won't be long enough but it may never end

I know I know it may never end
I know I know, but it may never end
I know I know, but it may never end
