Tell me what you need to hear
And I'll tell it to you again
I can fake it all if you can too
Will it stop from bleeding naturally enough?
Can I hold my tongue in silent?

The words are slow and repeating
I know you why don't you take what you need
And then go away
I know you why don't you take what you need

Die to get another glimpse in
So I'll watch the water rinse
Until we all get washed away
I never needed someone comforting me

I don't think I told you how I feel tonight
You perfect little angel, you're beautiful even now
I know you why don't you take what you need
And go away
I know you why don't you take what you need

Die to get another glimpse
So I'll watch the water rinse
Until we all get washed away
I never needed someone comforting me
Down I go
