Another face another empty space
The feelings fade and all the Lonely ones are left hiding
There's no way, there's no way left

Your spirit's so thin there's nothing left to take
Without rhyme or reason you point the other way
I don't need to watch as you go down in flame
I said over and over

The water comes and leaves its faint traces You're bored to tears I'll keep you here
But you won't listen, you won't listen

Your spirit's so thin there's nothing left to take
Without rhyme or reason you point the other way
I don't need to watch as you go down in flames
I said over and over and over and over and over and over and

Your spirit's so thin there's nothing left to take
Without rhyme or reason you point the other way
I don't need to watch as you go down in flames
I said over and over, and over and

Your spirit's so thin there's nothing left to take
Without rhyme or reason you point the other way
I don't need to watch as you go down in flames
And over and over, and over and over and I said over and over and, over and over and
I said over and over, and over and
