My heart stopped beating
When I stopped repeating
The way I was thinking
The way I was blinking
And how I was beside
Keeping all this inside
And often looked down
And I heard another sound
I needed to say
Today is not the day
But I had no other way

(Then tonight, for tonight)

And one boy chases
Chases a light
Then tonight
Of a spark in the dark

And one boy chases
Chases a light
Of a light in this dark sight
So hold on tight
For tonight

I was always aside
The one who needed to hide
Every second had meaning
With a light that was leading
And scars didn't hurt at all
And another voice started to call

For tonight (For tonight)
And one boy chases
Chases a light
And then tonight
Of a spark in the dark

And one boy chases
Chases a light
Of a light in this dark sight

So hold on tight
Hold on tight and wait, whoa-oh
(Hold on tight, hold on tight)

I wouldn't want to fall
I always wanted to be with you
I want your voices to call
I want your, I want your everything
I don't want my heart to start beating
I'd rather be repeating
Cause' things are best, and will be for the rest
So hold on tight, for tonight

And one boy chases
Chases a light
Then tonight
Of a spark in the dark

And one boy chases
Chases a light
Of a light in this dark sight
So hold on tight
For tonight

And one boy chases
Chases a light
Then tonight
Of a spark in the dark

And one boy chases
Chases a light
Of a light in this dark sight
So hold on tight
For tonight

One boy chases
Chases a light
Of a spark in the dark
Of a hope in doom
So hold on tight
For tonight
