"Scars"

Look away, I'm sick to see
What you think of me
Cast back to the memories
When everything would be
In ruins

So leave me here
I need to rest
So disappear
I saw the best
I don't want to live to hide

Time is passing much too slow
I won't ever let you know

And if you say goodbye
If it ends today
I'll ask you to tell the truth
If it's you
The hardest part is letting go
And not let you know
You're not any pain for me anymore

So fade away, don't try to know
Everything, it only makes me go
Making me think that scars won't show
So don't put me here feeling low
In ruins

So leave me here
I need to rest
So disappear
I saw the best
I don't want to live to hide

I never meant, I never meant to say
Because nothing more will explain
I need some time to think
And not let you know

And if you say goodbye

If it ends today
I'll ask you to tell the truth
If it's you
The hardest part is letting go
And not let you know
You're not any pain for me anymore

You ruined me
You put all these scars on me
You left me all this way
All until today
All until you said

And if you say goodbye
If it ends today
I'll ask you to tell the truth
If it's you
And not let you know
You're not any pain for me anymore

And not let you know
