If you were given the chance to live once more
Would you say yes
Or would you just shut up to say no?
Well let me guess

Cause' you were blaming yourself all the time
(I heard you sigh)
It's not like you've commit a crime
(Please don't cry)
You've been looking for a reason
(So was I)
Well you better hold on because it's on season

And one more day I'd promise myself
Tomorrow would be better, there's nothing else
Things might be harder than they seem
But it's a happy ending waiting for you

You never seemed to be so satisfied
You've been living this strivelife
And you've been finding what you'd be
You lived your life so why can't you see?
Wipe off your tears
Because today this fog disappears

And I'd thought you'll understand
(I guess I was wrong)
I said life is a parachute, you don't know where you land
(I'd hate to come along)
You've been waiting there because you've have something
(So was I)
Well you better hold on because it's on season

And one more day I'd promise myself
Tomorrow would be better, there's nothing else
Things might be harder than they seem
But it's a happy ending waiting for you

You never seemed to be so satisfied
You've been living this strivelife

And you've been finding what you'd be
You lived your life so why can't you see?
Wipe off your tears
Because today this fog disappears

You never seemed to be so satisfied
You've been living this strivelife
And you've been finding what you'd be
You lived your life so why can't you see?

A strivelife
A strivelife

Days won't wait for me
I'm confused, I assume that for everything
You'd kindle this bright feeling
Days won't wait for you
Because you've been waiting too long
Too bad you thought yourself wrong
Cause' you've got one and only
No more lonely great life
A strivelife

And you never seemed to be so satisfied
You've been living this strivelife
And you've been finding what you'd be
You lived your life so why can't you see?
Wipe off your tears
Because today this fog disappears

And one more day I'd promise myself
Tomorrow would be better, there's nothing else
Things might be harder than they seem
But it's a happy ending waiting for you

If you were given the chance to live once more
Would you say yes
Or would you just shut up to say no?
Well let me guess
Well let me guess...
You'll say yes...
