The past is done
It never showed itself
And so was yesterday
But I don't have to say

For every heartbeat
I swear I won't repeat
The same mistakes
I have more than what it takes

I'll make up for tomorrow
Of what I couldn't complete today
And for today
I'll hold back this feeling within

Because all the hope and light
That I hold for tomorrow
Is what keeps me up and up
Is what keeps me up and up
I'm never giving up

Because all the dust and moves
That I owe for tomorrow
Is what keeps me up and up
Up and up
And I'm never giving up

To try my best
I need to stay myself
And for the rest of my life
But every other thing won't need to stay

Cause' for every breath I take
For every silly mistakes
That I still owe
Is the only thing that makes me know

I'll make up for tomorrow
Of what I couldn't complete today
And for today
I'll hold back this feeling within

A better me
A better ability to see
For what to be
A better me
Because that's what everyone's waiting for

The past is done
But it's not gone
It's only hidden
I need to make up

Because all the hope and light
That I hold for tomorrow
Is what keeps me up and up
Is what keeps me up and up
I'm never giving up

Because all the dust and moves
That I owe for tomorrow
Is what keeps me up and up
Up and up
And I'm never giving up
I'm never giving up
Never

Because all the hope and light
That I hold for tomorrow
Is what keeps me up and up
Is what keeps me up and up
I'm never giving up

Because all the dust and moves
That I owe for tomorrow
Is what keeps me up and up
Up and up
