As you wear me in
You wear me out
And as I get drunk
I scream out loud
Where are you my love?
My shadow's alone
It keeps burning letters
Starts losing control...

And then I fell asleep
And i float inside of you
And it's just another dream
But it's never true

And as i walked to nowhere
I swam in depression
I really loved you
This is my last stupid confession
And as i faint inside my soul
I feel i'm getting cold
Oh,wake me,say it
Say you'll stay here

And then i wake in a nightmare
Oh,oh i'm lost in my sleep
And i'm on my own
And i do have fear...
