Who was it telling me, honestly, honesty is all about the timing
Oh, my bad, there was I sitting here
Thinking that honesty was all about truth
Oh, woe is me
Ah, your honesty

We've had conversations about the past
It's taken long enough to see your true colours
You got so many baby, you're like a fuckin' rainbow
Just let me revel in your blue notes

Who was it sitting here yesterday saying that I'm leaving in a hurry
Oh, my bad, there was I sitting there
Watching you talking like I'm already gone
Oh, woe is me
Ah, your honesty

We've had conversations about the past
It's taken long enough to see your true colours
You got so many baby, you're like a fuckin' rainbow
Just let me revel in your blue notes

Who was it telling me, honestly, honesty is all about the
timing
Oh, my bad, there was I sitting here
Thinking that honesty was all about truth
Oh, woe is me
Ah, your honesty
Ah, your honesty
Your honesty
Ah, your honesty
Ah, your honesty

Your honesty
Ah, your honesty
