So kind of you to come round and testify
With your softly spoken alibi
You're so convinced that you're saving yourself
You should save it for somebody else
Save it for somebody else

Hood up, head down and just walk away
I already know what it is that you're gonna say
You know the truth is a much harder sell
Might as well save it for somebody else

Save it for somebody else
Save it for somebody else
Save it

Hood up, head down
Hood up, head down
Hood up, head down
