Take me down to the river
That we started to flow
How can you be a flower
When you're fighting the power?

With my hands on your hips
I'm caressing your lips
You're adorable, baby
And exceptional, baby

She lives out of her handbag
With no life in her phone
I see her breaking down
And she's all on her own

When we go out to party
Only once in a while
You're adorable, baby
And exceptional, baby

You got me right where you want me
Not where I want to be
I got you right where I want you
Not where you want to be

Don't get out of your mind
Like most people we know

You're exceptional, baby
And I want you to know

With my hands on your hips
I'm caressing your lips
You're adorable, baby
And exceptional, baby

Take me down to the river
That we started to flow
How can you be a flower
When you're fighting the power?

When we go out to party

Only once in a while
You're adorable, baby
And exceptional, baby

Don't get out of your mind
Like most people we know
You're adorable, baby
And exceptional, baby

With my hands on your hips
I'm caressing your lips
You're adorable, baby
And exceptional, baby

You're adorable baby
And exceptional baby
