The time has come what the prophecies told
A demon has come from the nether world
On a rainy night, on a dusrty road
The stranger came in a yellow coat
Sitting on a horse, armed with a black sword
With a sinister look he was the herald of doom
His mother was a demon, his father was a priest
His name was Korg Polaris

Korg Polaris!
Demon from the darkest hell!
Cold emotions!
He is soulless like a living dead!
He is a curse for the human race
He began his deadly race
A prince from hell
An expert in deadly spells
The master: of black magic
Of bloody massacre without logic
