Intro

Sometimes, I just, I just take a look at my life, ya know?
And uh, I don't know? Just listen up...

Chorus

Welcome to the gutter motha fucka take a look at me
I just hit rock bottom and they're aint no one to comfort me
So fuck the world, I'm signing off, peace I'm out, I been denied
Here we go, open the sky's, I can hear the Angels Cry

As I sit back in this chair, I'm reminiscing on my surgeries
A tumor here, some cancer there, dreams are robbed like burglaries Doctors say I'm fucked, but they're all committing perjury
And I refuse to stop, cause I know there's nothing wrong with me

And I'll be fine, why? cause my music rehabilitates Plus I got my fam, and they always seem to conjugate And if they don't, they always call, cause they just wanna keep me safe I'm ford tough, I been through things, my mind is in a New York state

Hustle hard and I fly straight, but I've been known to desecrate
So if the game don't let me in, I'm breaking in like Watergate Kids today they rap and say, everything from yesterday
But me I think, I feel the beat, and write the future here today

Through my music I array, everything I wont display All the thoughts you never knew, and all the words I'll never say Through my music I confess, all the pain I don't express

All the steam you don't expect, and all the dreams I do possess

Chorus (2x)

Welcome to the gutter motha fucka take a look at me
I just hit rock bottom and they're aint no one to comfort
me

So fuck the world, I'm signing off, peace I'm out, I been
denied

Here we go, open the sky's, I can hear the Angels Cry

Welcome to my darker side, fuck the truth, I should of lied

Aint to where to run or hide, trust me I already tried Lost, dark, cold, blind, search my soul, what do you find?

Pray and pray, show me a sign, chills that kill run up my spine

Times have changed, worlds collide, kill or cry? I can't decide

Good or bad? can't pick a side, hollow heart, empty inside

How did I get where I am, thought I did all that I can Guess I failed, I don't know who to call or where to go

It's my fault and I'm aware, I blame you, this life aint fair

Anyone there, does anyone care? life's a bitch, aint got a prayer

I'm under pressure, eyes on "Fi", they look at me, why can't I see

That I aint who I use to be? Mike is dead, yet now he's free?

I transform before your eyes, mind is filled with hate and lies

I'll rap and write until I die, but that ain't far, the time fly's by

The real me's gone, I'm something else, feeling strange, I aint myself

Bolts of lighting, Egor Screams, Officially FiO BaBY!

Chorus (2x)

Welcome to the gutter motha fucka take a look at me
I just hit rock bottom and they're aint no one to comfort
me

So fuck the world, I'm signing off, peace I'm out, I been
denied

Here we go, open the sky's, I can hear the Angels Cry

Have you ever been so jealous, that it eats you up inside?
You wanna drop dead, like what's the point to stay alive?
You wanna break down, matter fact you wanna cry But the rage within your veins, always help you to survive

So I turn to my music, with a paper and pen Spill my heart on these pages, then I do it again
And you don't how hard I try, just to be the best I can Cause no matter what I rap, they'll love you more in the end

I medicate myself, just to try and keep the pain away Cause lifes a game that can't be won, but thanks for playing anyway
World is full of miracles, stranger than a UFO My college years are just for show, I'll spend a 5th in audio

Here we go, lets blow more dough, Roughly 20, 000
Bro
Why the fuck is school so much, I'm just here to rap and such
And why is everyone today, acting rough and all robust Yea keep it up, play the role, don't test me bitch, I will combust

Chorus (2x)
Welcome to the gutter motha fucka take a look at me
I just hit rock bottom and they're aint no one to comfort
me
So fuck the world, I'm signing off, peace I'm out, I been
denied
Here we go, open the sky's, I can hear the Angels Cry
