Long nights on rollin' bed
Lonely days on the road
Crazy thoughts creepin' round my head
How was I supposed to know

Fallin' out of another day
Headlong into the night
I guess there's nothing much left to say
Hit the gas, kill the lights

I've gone crazy one cent at a time
I slipped and I fell on my pride
The king of fools always doing fine
Could've sworn time was on my side

Chaingang, yeah I busted some rocks
To cover a little ground
I'm not pining to be in a box
Guess you like me hanging around

Even if I could, girl do you think I would
Forget about all the good things we have known
Yeah well maybe that's just you
Baby that's just me

Ever patient when it suits your mood
Wash it down with the pain
But heaven seemed to open up on you
When you pour it always rains

So find some shelter, hold up for awhile
And keep the powder dry
With the flow has never been in style
Against the grain's worth a try

Even if I could, girl do you think I would
Forget about all the good things we have known
Yeah well maybe that's just you
Baby that's just me

Maybe that's just you
Maybe that's just you

Maybe that's just you
Baby that's just me
