Hoping with each new day, I'm moving forward
I push the fear away and I let go
'Cause I'm so through with barely hanging on

Leaving what's in the past behind
I've come closer to crossing over the line
And I won't stop until I get what I've been fighting for
You've said it all before

Tell me again that I am strong
Tell me again that I won't fall
I need You here to fix me where I'm wrong

Take me beyond what I can see
Break me, make me believe
That You have made me all I need to be

Knowing all that I can do is be open
When You start to move in my heart
And now, my God, I finally hear Your voice
You've said it all before

Tell me again that I am strong
Tell me again that I won't fall
I need You here to fix me where I'm wrong

Take me beyond what I can see
Break me, make me believe
That You have made me all I need to be

Oh, who I am is all I've got
Oh, I can't be who I am not anymore

Tell me again that I am strong
Tell me again that I won't fall
I need You here to fix me where I'm wrong

Take me beyond what I can see
Break me, make me believe
That You have made me all I need to be

I am strong, make me believe

And you have made me all I need to be
I am strong, make me believe
Make me believe
