"The Candle And The Flame"

where are you going to find your peace a story or a life?
if we've learned how to live fear will find no room exchange conversation if you dare to share an empty thought or a laugh is everything here connected
the candle and the flame?
there's no reason to think so
and just as much to not
I'd be a fool to say either way I'd put it in my pocket if I thought it would fill it I'd put it in my heart if I thought I believed it exchange conversation if you dare
to share an empty thought or a laugh
is everything here connected
the candle and the flame?

no reason to think so

a fool would say either way
