silence to regain composure or rather, music to soothe maybe a little magic could help things could turn around freeze this mood for now hold tight till it thaws

wetness pulled out of me

so I cry less easily

a hasty decision

hardly used

jokingly punished

icy fingers touch warmth trickles to the floor

so I'll cry less easily
