"All You Had"

I was down and out in hallway passing out
From alcohol and nicotine and you stayed up all night
Wondering where the hell I've been
Wondering where the hell I've been

Find a reason why I live my life
Looking for medicine, I stay up all night
Wondering where the hell I've been
Wondering where the hell I've been

I was falling down, my legs couldn't carry me
No longer carry me, you let me have my time

Next to the bathroom sink
Next to the bathroom sink

And you gave me all you had
You gave me all you had

It's been a long, long time
I can't remember how long since my body could stand me
I hope that in time
Before too long I can be somebody else than me

You gave me all you had
You gave me all you had
And you gave me all you had
You gave me all you had

I was down and out
You gave me all you had
In hallway passing out
