I keep saying, I don't understand
Well, she knows me, I don't go that way
It might be better in another town
When you're never there and he's never around

If you'd ask me, well, it's just not right
And I'll know that until the day that I'll die
And I'll listen to every word you say
It might be your truth but to me it don't make no sense at all
It don't make no sense at all

And I don't like this, mess I'm in My life's been made out of trouble
Since I don't know when
Well, it's been some time now

And I've been on my own
I've had time to think now
And it don't make no sense at all

It don't make no sense at all

Ohh, that's just my luck
Well, that's just my luck

Any day now
It will all break down

I keep saying and I don't understand
What she knows I don't go that way
I keep saying and I don't understand
What she knows I don't go that way

I keep saying and I don't understand
What she knows I don't go that way
I keep saying and I don't understand
What she knows I don't go that way

Any day now
It will all break down
Yeah, any day now

It'll break me

Well, c'mon now
And think about it
Take a long hard look at it
You see it don't make no sense at all

Take a long hard look at it
You seem to make no sense at all
