is it real were always the same were almost undone now
i was caught in the rain wasting my time on the ground waiting the call of what would you say and can you come over
i was caught in the rain

it was you who could get me high with whatever you say youre telling me something real what we do doesnt matter now whatever it takes for you to stay with me trading thoughts across from the room i saw you surrounded

i was caught in the rain

feeling us fall without an escape i almost let you down
i was caught in the rain

when i was caught in the rain you made me feel
you made me feel
made me feel

i was caught in the rain
caught in the rain
