I didn't know that I could feel this way
Now that you are gone
Not even in my wildest dreams
Imagined that a part of me was gone
Everywhere that I go
I'll only think of you
No matter how I try to concentrate
I can't forget you
Where do we go?
How can we fly?
What are we searching for in dreams?
Where do we go from here now?
The beginning is the end
Where do we go from here now?
When nothing feels the same
My needs for you are hard to leave behind
I know that I've swore
You broke your rules said you'd never leave
Heart stopped beating when you closed the door
Where do we go?
How can we fly?
What are we searching for?
Where do we go from here now?
The beginning is the end
Where do we go from here now?
When nothing feels the same
Where do we go from here now?
The beginning is the end
Where do we go from here now?
My broken heart you could only mend
Where do we go from here now?
The beginning is the end
Where do we go from here now?
When nothing feels the same
Where do we go from here?
The beginning is the end
When nothing feels the same
Where do we go from here?
Where do we go?
