You follow religion
You have to believe
You don't ask for reason
'Cause you're just so naive
But what they don't tell you is that they're in control They give out a little Then take your body and soul

Pre-chorus:
Confusion, delusion,
you feel there's no solution Desire, on fire, don't you think it's time to believe?

Chorus:
Why can't you see it's the sign of times?
Blind leading the blind,

into the ark of lies

The new world uprising, to take out the rats.
They run but they can't hide,
from the furious wrath.
Their unholy mission is to sweep up the trash
The days of defiance, revolt of the mass

Pre-chorus x 1

Chorus x 2
