War to end all wars

Hatred lost control

Casualties now mounting

Tales yet still untold

Life's eradication

Of man now beyond all reason

Totally insane

The human race becomes

Lest we forgot - Thoughts will always haunt the mind

Lest we forgot - The bitterness remains

Vast termination

Man made rationality

Complete elimination

Of life beyond brutality

Eternal resentment

Re-occurs time after time

Driven to despair

Extinction drawing near

Lest we forgot - Thoughts will always haunt the mind

Lest we forgot - The bitterness remains

Lest we forgot - Thoughts will always haunt the mind

Lest we forgot - The bitterness remains

Commence removal of all things valued in life

The persecution what was once believed right

Humanities objective now totally deranged

When ignorance transpires, this world becomes insane
