A time for peace, a time for war
Time moving onwards forever more
A time to live, a time to die
Hypocrisy, now denied

Life [?]

Blood flows cold
Contempt overruns the soul
draining deep inside
The litany abide

Embraced by terror
No place to hide
Face the final judgement
Compassion now slowly dies

Stripped of all sanity
Installed a new reality
Overlord supremacy
Vengeance now implied

Embraced by terror
No place to hide
Face the final judgement
Compassion now slowly dies

Now free from strain
Existence drains away
Fallen as the rain
To be lost in life's pain

Now [...]
Can comprehension fit in?
You stretched beyond capacity[?]
Vengeance shall be mine
