"The Shreds Of Sanity"

Within your minds
You feel a force
Striving to gain control
It burns you deep inside

No one can help you now

You try to focus on reality
Feel your minds slipping
An outside air of composure
Inside you're screaming
Inside you're screaming

White blinding lights
Now turns your world to black
Alone in silence
You prepare to meet the final attack

Your minds now out of control
A psychological disease
Your greatest fears envelop your mind
Infect it with torment

Now totally insane
You can't remember your life before
A final vain hope
As you grasp for the shreds

The shreds of sanity, of sanity
The shreds of sanity, of sanity

You cannot hide the fear
Confusion eats at your will
You lived your life upon a knife edge
Of sanity

As your grip begins to fail
The words echo through your mind
Look what's become
Of your world, your world

The shreds, the shreds of sanity, of sanity

The shreds, the shreds of sanity
