I spit out my chewing gum it just makes me hungry, not Fresh no! So what's next, huh? I better find an apartment, need Help with the rent 'cause I'm poor oh! It's nothing new, well I know
At night when I'm sleepy I think about moves to be done, ya!
So I get up and write m down.
The watch that I'm wearing: The clock work runs fine.
Is it my heart that's ticking? Or is it the time?
Time time, you've never had it, Time time, you will find
it
Time time, you've never had it but you will soon
Time time, you've never had it, Time time, you will find
it
Time time, you've never had it but you will soon
I spit out my chewing gum it just makes me hungry, not Fresh no! So what's next, huh? I put up some postcards On the wall to maker my world bigger the this small world.
The watch that I'm wearing: The clock work runs fine.
Is it my heart that's ticking? Or is it the time?
Time time, you've never had it, Time time, you will find
it
Time time, you've never had it but you will soon
Time time, you've never had it, Time time, you will find
it
Time time, you've never had it but you will soon
The life on your shoulders keeps you down on the earth.
If you let it run, you will lift from the ground!
Time time, you've never had it, Time time, you will find
it
Time time, you've never had it but you will soon
Time time, you've never had it, Time time, you will find
it
Time time, you've never had it but you will soon
