You're 24, you can't give up now
There's so much more
Walk out the door
People were laughing but not anymore.
Well I heard you got
Caught from stealing in your own fathers
Bookshop, well that's
A funny story and if it's true a hope you stole
Something good.
You're 24 tired of dancing, you lie on the floor.
Walk out the door
People are leaving (and laughing) it's all a bore.
Well I've been freezing
For quite a long time now, but you don't notice
'cause your eyes are closed.
I've been freezing for quite a long time but
Where are you?
I don't see you. You're 24, I hope you make it
To 25
And then you're 25, so glad you made it and
You're my friend!
