Love will come knocking at your door.
Maybe at a time when you expect no visitors
Maybe at a time when you doubt if there's more
Then love will come knocking at yur
Door. And when she do it, invite her in.
Ask her if she's hungry, 'cause she looks
Pretty thin. Play her a record and start
Dancing around. Fall in love and boy, you
Will stay Love will come knocking at your door

Maybe at a time when you don't look in the mirror
Maybe at a time when your drinks been more then four.
Then love will come knocking at your door.
And when she do it, invite her in. She might Be frozen god knows where she's been
Play her a record and start dancing around
Fall in love and boy, you will stay
IN LOVE!
