(V1)

Every Minute Goes By.
I'm still alone.
I wipe my eyes.
Gotta Stop wasting tears for this guy.
I don't know why I'm like this.
He Lied To Me.
Broke Every Promise.
It's getting difficult now that your gone.
It was So radical.

(Chorus)

But Now I got nothing to lose.
Nothing To Lose.
The pain isn't like the misery of those years with you.
So why does it always happen in my life?
But I don't Care There's Nothing To Lose.
Even if you were here. I'd still have nothing.

(V2)

I don't wanna fight.
Today's not my day.
Everything attacks me when I think about about all the times we spent.
If you were by my side, everything would feel alright.
Maybe us two just weren't meant to be.
-Oooh- When you were still next to me.
I kept your promise within all the memories.

(Chorus)

-bridge-

It's kinda funny how it rained that day.
What happened between us didn't mean a thing.
Do you think we can start it all over?
From a new beginning?
It just can't be over.
Without you, no chemicals can collide.
But I still have nothing with or with out.
