"Down Up"

Visit "Down Up" on MotoLyrics.com

My knees are weak
And full of jealous heat
I can't tell the difference between
Progressive and weak
I'm so divided
Getting excited in the liberal art scheme
I know I know you've tried everything

I'm feeling stuck
And now I'm fucked in frozen shite
So strangely suspicious I can't stop
So strangely delicious

I know you knew I'm thinking
I know you tried everything
I know there's no guarantee
As I cross my heart

If it were really true
What would I do
If it were really true
What would you do

Don't panic
I don't wanna panic
If it were really true

And now you know everything we don't need to know
Don't panic
