Marlon!

You're unacceptable

James, James, James

You can't do that anymore

You don't look right, you don't look right

You don't look right, you don't look young

You don't look strong, you don't look right

Kiss me quick, squeeze me slow

If that's all you want me to do!

Timebomb waits in your blood

And all you wanted was love

Barbara

Your prediction's coming true

Jane, Jane, Jane

You're much too good to be true

You can swap your leathers for a plastic mac

And take your motorcycle to the bottle bank

Vroom Vroom

And all you wanted was love
