"Say When"

Visit "Say When" on MotoLyrics.com

This aching heart is a guarantee
The situation has got to me
The agony and the ecstasy
Is coming to an end
Say when ... say when
My bedroom wall is a silver screen
I present my life as it should have been
I've seen the film a thousand times
But I've never seen the end
Say when ... say when

No amount of promises
No amount of pain
No amount of promises
Can bring you back again
I've seen the film a thousand times
But I've never seen the end
Say when
