There's a hole in my heart the tears in the dark have dried up and gone by the time that it takes to run through to the end of the night, through this hole in my heart, a hole in my heart

There's a space in my head a hollow you left by my side in the bed where I sleep in the shadows of broken dreams in a hole in my heart,
this hole in my heart,

The wounds may have healed but the scars last forever,
On the outside you never could guess, there's barely a sign
But get close and you'll sense that's something's wrong,
something's gone, something's lost, something's over,

This hole in my heart.

There's a place where I go where time is so slow, memories circle my mind, Burning on entry just like falling stars Through this hole in my heart,

forever,
On the Outside you never could guess, there's barely a
sign
But get close and you'll sense that's something's
wrong,
something's gone, something's lost, something's over,

This hole in my heart,
There's a hole in my heart
