Light switch, yellow fever, crawling up your bathroom wall
Singing psychedelic praises to the depths of the china bowl
You've got venom in your stomach, you've got poison
in your head
You should have listen to the priest at the Confession when he offered you the sacred bread

He knows, you know, he knows, you know
He knows, you know, but he's got problems

Fast feed, crystal fever, swarming through a fractured mind
Chilling needles freeze emotion, the blind shall lead the blind
You've got venom in your stomach, you've got poison
in your head
When your conscience whispered, the vein lines stiffened
You were walking with the dead

He knows, you know, he knows, you know, he knows, you know
He's got experience, he's got experience, he knows
you know
But he's got problems, problems, problems

He knows... slash wrists, scarlet fever Crawl under your bedroom door Pumping arteries ooze their problems Through the gap that the razor tore

You've got venom in your stomach
You've got poison in your head
You should have listened to your analyst's Questions when you lay on his leather bed

He knows, you know, he knows, you know

Blank eyes, purple fever streaming through the frosted panes

You learned your lesson far too late from the links in a chemist chain

You've got venom in your stomach, you've got poison
in your head

You should have stayed at home and talked With father listen to the lies he fed

He knows, you know, he knows, you know
He knows, you know, he knows, you know
He knows, you know he's got experience
He's got experience, he knows you know
He knows you know
