"Innocent Party"

Don't talk to me about justice, freedom, truth and democracy,
When all you left me were false hopes, lies, empty promises,
Now you're crying betrayal, demanding attention and sympathy,
You forget your own treason, your actions and the consequences of your selfish behaviour, don't make out that you're the innocent party!

You played the cards you were dealt with unwisely;
you didn't listen to me,
You tried to bluff once too often, you were called out, cheating in the first degree Just a sheep in wolf's clothing, a cowboy, a charlatan a chevalier,
A naïve knave among princes, you weren't quite what you appeared to be!

Now all you see is all you get;
it's in your face, nowhere else left to hide, Just face the truth and face the facts you're on your own,
no one left on your side

You blame it all on the system you worked in you helped to perpetuate You sold out all of your secrets; you sold short all your big ideas

You were flying too high not a care in the world,
you thought that you'd never come down;
You forgot all the rules, lost sight of the ground
Didn't think that you ever could fall,
A fool on the wing flew too close to the sun;
you burned out and dropped out the sky,
And everyone stared but did anyone care
no-one remembers your name,

Now you can't trust your own instincts, you don't know who or what to believe,

You were blind in the spotlight you reached out for conspiracies.

There's times you feel you lost your mind, you've lost control the very will to survive, Just pick yourself up of the ground, get dusted down, and get back in the fight

You were flying too high not a care in the world,
you thought that you'd never come down;
You forgot all the rules, lost sight of the ground
Didn't think that you ever could fall,
A fool on the wing flew too close to the sun;
you burned out and dropped out the sky,
And everyone stared but did anyone care
No one remembers your name,

Now that you're down to your last hope, the long shot, now you're down on your knees, Begging me for one last chance, one more golden opportunity

And all you see is all you get;
it's in your face, nowhere else left to hide,
Just face the truth and face the facts you're on your own, no one left on your side

You once had the World at your feet but your conscience wandered in clouds, You lost sight of your goals;
your vision was blurred when the towers one day disappeared.
Everyone stared, no one believed as the images burned on our screens, That a world had just changed, the dream evaporates, no more innocent parties!
