Old dust, old dirt, they're mine and only mine
I'm just some mortal, you are so divine
You control the game without playing it right
oh, oh, oh, oh.

Raise high in me what once did sink below
All dark within now radiantly glows Come on take me back all that time ago
oh, oh, oh, oh.

Our love was just one of your discarded jewels
You think back to its price and oh you feel a fool
But in that certain light, it did look so beautiful
oh, oh, oh, oh.
