Your egos steppin on my toes.
Never been this close to sin even though i don't believe in symbols
You have to answer for yourself. Hate combined with ignorance makes one furious.
Go away. Cause We don't like you. Full of shit and so are your friends too.
What I mean this time You'll never understand. Been together this long this will never end.

And you're so brave behind your friends. Insecure and lost creating all the loose ends.
And you're so brave behind your friends. Standing in the middle of the loose ends.
Answering for yourself in every single way.
i don't care about what your ugly mouth say.
