Occupy your quiet corner,
as everybody does,
who does not wish
to raise their voice,
or lacks the courage necessary;
nervous,in a sea of faces;
endless,ever-changing,
simply waiting
for someone
to recognise the fact that you exist.
So occupy your quiet corner,
as everybody does,

to raise their voice,
or lacks the courage necessary;
nervous,in a sea of shit;
endless,ever-changing,
for someone
to recognise the fact that you exist.
