All the things I said,I should have said and I didnt say,
and I wonder why,yes I wonder why...
I think about the time we spent,the places that we went still makes me cry,yes it makes me cry

Why do they say that time will heal this broken heart?
They would know it isnt true,if they lost some like you,O...

CHOURS

Somethings can never be replaced, somethings are with me for always,
These are the things i will remember,when I remember when Id rather love and lose you all,than never have you to recall,
these are the things I will remember,again and again (again and again) when I remember when

You taught me how to love,I am all I am because of you,
just because of you Everytime I lost my way,you shine a light you make my day
You see me through,yes you see me through.

So whos gonna come around to heal this broken heart?
To show me how to laugh and cry,but never to say goodbye?

Yes life goes on,you carry on,you do and its ok (when I remember when)

yes love goes on,and I will live to love another day (when I remember when)
yes life goes on,you carry on you do and its ok
I will laugh and cry,but I will never say goodbye.....
