Chances are, when said and done
Who'll be the lucky ones
Who make it all the way
Though you say I could be your answer
Nothing lasts forever
No matter how it feels today

Chances are, we'll find a new equation
Chances run away from me
Chances are all they hope to be

Don't get me wrong, I never say never Cause though love can't change the weather
No act of God could pull me away from you
I'm just a realistic man
A bottle filled with shells and sand
Afraid to love beyond what I can lose
When it comes to you
And though I'll see us through yeah

Chances are we'll find two destinations
Chances run away from me
Still chances are more than expectations
And possibilities... over me

Eight to five, or two to one
Lay your money on the sun
Until you crash, what have you done?
Is there a better bet than love?
What you are is what you bring
You gotta cry before you see chances
Chances

Chances lost our hopes torn out pages
Maybe this time

Chances are we'll be the combination
Chances come and carry me
Chances are waiting 'till they take it
And I can see

Chances are the fascination
Chances won't escape from me
Chances are only what we're living
And all I need
