Don't let the sun catch you cryin'
Cryin' 'round my front door
You done your baby so dirty
That's why she don't want you no more

And don't let the sun catch you lyin'
Lyn' 'round my front door
Your baby done gone and turned salty
And you know you made her do so

You can cry, cry, cry
I know that you know how to wail
And you can beat your head on the pavement
Until the man comes and throws you in jail

But don't let the sun catch you cryin'
Cryin' 'round my front door
You done your baby so dirty
That's why she don't want you no more

Cry, and wail
And you can beat your head on the pavement
Until the man comes and throws you in jail,
But don't let the sun catch you cryin'
Cryin' 'round my front door

Oh, when the moon goes down in the dawnin'
And the sun comes up in the mornin'
Don't let the sun catch you cryin'
When the moon goes down in the dawnin'

Don't let the sun catch you cryin'
'Cause baby don't want you no more
No more
No more
