We put tape in the blaster
Got up on our bikes
Had no destination
We just did whatever we liked

Those were the days that shaped us
We hung out in the harbor
Where the cranes reached for the sky

In the shadows of the piles of junk
We spent both days and nights
Those were the days that shaped us
Sometimes I wish, I could go back

This place was our kingdom
And no one could take it away
The fun never ended
On our nightly escapades

Those were the days that shaped us
Sometimes I wish, I could go back
And it was long before the crossroads
Where we could go our separate ways

No I, I can't believe
That it's been ten years
It's been some tears
It feels like yesterday

We didn't really care if the rain came pouring down
'Cause there was always something goin' on
And we had to be around
Those were the days that shaped us

The freight trains came and left
And so did the years
Before I knew it, it was gone
It's new time but we're still here

Those were the days that shaped us
Sometimes I wish, I could go back
And it was long before the crossroads

Where we could go our separate ways

No I, I can't believe
That it's been ten years
It's been some tears
It feels like yesterday

No I, I can't believe
That it's been ten years
It's been some tears
Now here, here we are today

No I, I can't believe
That it's been ten years
It's been some tears
It feels like yesterday

No I, I can't believe
It's been some tears
Now here we are today

No I, I can't believe
It's been some tears
And it feels, feels like yesterday
