I went to your school of broken sense
You showed me the door, I walked out by myself
I came for the knowledge, now I'm gonna get the rest

I'm ready to go, step right in to this small town show
I tune in underground radio

Well, come on and examine me
Examine my thoughts and my qualities
My will come straight out, loaded fucking energy

I'm ready to go, step right in to this small town show
I tune in underground radio

I'm gonna show
Everything I know
Underground Radio

Said I'm gonna show
Everything I know
Underground Radio

I went to your school of broken sense
You showed me the door, I walked out by myself
I came for the knowledge, now I'm gonna get the rest

I'm ready to go, step right in to this small town show
I tune in underground radio

I'm gonna show
Everything I know
Underground Radio

Said I'm gonna show
Everything I know
Underground Radio

The channel of a visionary and a critic
Breaking down the lies systematic
Antiquated slogans from a time I barely know
They fall and then they're gone
One by one

I'm ready to go, step right in to this small town show
I tune in underground radio

'Cos I'm gonna show
Everything I know
Underground Radio

Said I'm gonna show
Everything I know
Underground Radio

Said I'm gonna show
Everything I know
Underground Radio
