It was a dark and stormy night last night.
Bitter dark.
Rain fell in torrents,
Stabbing its ghosts through the cold,
And straight through our hearts.

I've been waiting, in halfhearted sleep,
For a promise I half meant to keep.
Just for hoping that hope still flies,
Wipe the sleep out of our sleeping eyes.

Fog that is lifting,
The specter of dreams we once had,
Speaks into the night,
Slumber is over,
Sunlight is streaming through,
Come into the light.

I've been waiting, in halfhearted sleep,
For a promise I half meant to keep.
Just for hoping that hope still flies,
Wipe the sleep out of our sleeping eyes.

I know,
Hope has not forgotten me,
I know,
I'm waking from the longest dream.
I know [x4]

I've been waiting, in halfhearted sleep,
For a promise I half meant to keep.
Just for hoping that hope still flies,
Wipe the sleep out of our sleeping eyes.
And hope still flies...
