I walked in and saw you there
You smiled at me and brushed back your hair
You came on over and said hello
There goes my heart I didn't even know

You helped me find everything I need
But all I can think about is you and me
I better stop dreaming before I go to far
I better go I see your boyfriend's car

She goes
Upside-downside turn me around inside
All inside my head
She's got a smile so wide
When I saw her the first time
My heart fell just like lead
Over the girl at the store

Girl at the store
The girl at the store
She don't even know

There's something else you don't even know
The way you move, you just kind of flow
When I'm near I can hardly speak
I wanna tell you but my knees go weak

She goes
Upside-downside turn me around inside
All inside my head
She's got a smile so wide
When I saw her the first time
My heart fell just like lead
Over the girl at the store

The girl at the store
The girl at the store
Well she don't even know

I know you don't know me
That's alright
There's something about you girl

That keeps me up at night
They say true love
Can happen anytime
But if I had one wish
It would go just like this
I know I'd make you mine

She goes
Upside-downside turn me around inside
All inside my head
She's got a smile so wide
When I saw her the first time
My heart fell just like lead
She goes
Upside-downside turn me around
She goes
All inside my head

The girl at the store
